We, who live in Budapest, really cannot complain. There are lots of thermal spas all over the City. The second biggest ratio of thermal water supply per capita can be found in Hungary. The temperature of the spouting water ranges from 21 to 76 degrees Celsius. Budapest is the only capital city in the world under which real thermal water can be found. Many of our thermal spas have a very serious past and there are some that have been operating for more than 500 years. If you really want to plan your time spent in Budapest carefully, you just shouldn't miss visiting one of its spas. It is relaxing both physically and mentally at the same time and it is also and enjoyable way of spending your time while exploring the city. Budapest Thermal Baths have two different roles even from the very beginning. On the one hand, submerging into the water that is full of curative minerals relaxes your body. On the other hand, they have been a center for socializing for a long time. for more info: <http://www.bathsbudapest.com/> or <http://www.spasbudapest.com/>
